

Mr. Loomis: Thanks for the information on these Loomis.
Wallenpauack Area School District 9/4/84
Newfoundland

Mrs. Simon - Grade 2
Randy Loomis - Russell Loomis
Randy Loomis - Russell Loomis
L. P. 29-77

Wallenpauack Middle School
TD - Mrs. Mitchell - Room 307

Cristy Loomis
CHRISTY Lynn Loomis
L. P. 19-73

Yes. They are
Three of the 4
Children of David Eugene Loomis (L. 09-13-1952)
and Carol Zane. Their 4th child is named
Raymond William Loomis (L. 11-23-1975).

Route 191, La Anna Road, R.R. 2,
Cress, PA
4 Children of Raymond R. Loomis
(05-12-1907 - 11-08-1962) and Cecelia
Twene - who died 03-16-1981.

09-06-84-p.7

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
Real Estate and Buildings Department
475 L'Enfant Plaza, SW
Washington, DC 20260-6400

August 29, 1984

Mr. S. Robert Powell
President
Carbondale Historical Society and Museum, Inc.
Post Office Box 151
Carbondale, Pennsylvania 18407-0151

Dear Mr. Powell:

Postmaster General William F. Bolger has asked me to respond to your letter dated August 13, concerning the old post office in Carbondale, Pennsylvania.

Prior to posting an advertisement for sale of this building, the proposed covenants were submitted to and concurred in by the Pennsylvania State Historic Preservation Officer and the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation. The covenants were included in the bid package so that all potential bidders would be informed of their responsibilities if they were successful in purchasing the building. The conveyance document is presently being prepared, and it contains the covenants. We feel that we have fully fulfilled our obligation to protect the historical integrity of the building.

Sincerely,

Roger P. Craig
Roger P. Craig
Assistant Postmaster General

09-06-1984-p.8

August 28, 1984

S -

"Current affairs" are of some interest/use to you. I feel like I'm throwing things down the black hole of Calcutta, or maybe they're being sucked into black holes in space. Oh well, without faith what is there?

F

Tina Turner is not 45 years old, she's 50 if she's a day. To understand why Greg Tate (friend and music critic) says "Your fantasies begin where her mini-skirt ends" see the cover of her album (and she doesn't work out with Jane Fonda - that's natural).

Rod Stewart who brought her back into the public eye knew what he was doing (Uncle Mick is also a Tina fan). I'm sure her musicians play just to be in her presence and not for money.

Now, people like Tina Turner and Aretha Franklin have always been too "ethnic" for me. Their music is far too "colored" and "emotional". I will now attribute this attitude to stupidity and the arrogance of youth. After much soul-searching and reflection I have decided that at age 50 I will dye my hair blonde and become a cross between Aretha Franklin and Tina Turner. So, start doing your push-ups Bobby and watch out!

P.S. I'm sure that "What's Love Got To Do With It" is a hit even in Carbondale. Taffee (from quilt group) tells me that she was walking down the street on the east side and passed a man in a blue polyester leisure suit singing "What's love got to do with it, got to do with it. What's love but a second-hand emotion."

La Nuit de Varennes

Saw this movie on cable; it was quite wonderful. Wish I had a recorder so I could see it again. Please excuse my ignorance, but I am in need of a history lesson. Was Restif really real? Did he really chronicle the French Revolution? Did Louis the XVI and Marie-An. really try to run away and were they captured by townspeople and held in a candle-making store? Did Marat really incite the people to revolution? And finally, were Cassanova and Tom Paine there or is this movie fabrication?

I stand ready to be fascinated by the breadth of your knowledge.

